

MISS LINDSAY'S SECRET

308 Union St

Seattle

May 12th 1902

apple trees. I can see

plenty of snow

mountains

here I see

will be

mountains

away is

I suppose

will see by the road

that I have got to the other side of America

So I am pretty well advanced on my journey to Idon

where I will likely land in the end. I had a design by Virginia C. Aspinwall

Come in ~ Shut the door ~ Open the box

The intimate tale of a Scottish seamstress binds the Klondike goldrush to Glenesk written and performed by Maria MacDonell with Alan Finlayson, and Georgina MacDonell Finlayson (music)